

EMBRACE YOUR SEASON

THE NOW SEASON
occupy.recognize.understand

Ecclesiastes 3:1 (AMP)

¹TO EVERYTHING there is a season, and a time for every matter or purpose under heaven.

John 7:6 (AMP)

⁶Whereupon Jesus said to them, My time (opportunity) has not come yet; but any time is suitable for you and your opportunity is ready any time [is always here].

As we grow and mature, we must understand the need to embrace the changing seasons of life.

A season does not qualify you or make you qualified. You qualify for your season.

Our seasons are basically divided into two types:

- 1) Seasons of Seed time. (Preparation)
- 2) Seasons of Harvest. (Reaping what has been sown during seed time.)

When we operate properly within a season, God sets up things and people to co-operate with us.

How you respond to a season determines your level of maturity and understanding of your season.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 – He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also planted eternity in men’s hearts and minds (a divinely implanted sense of a purpose working through the ages which nothing under the sun but God alone can satisfy).

EMBRACE YOUR SEASON

THE NOW SEASON
occupy.recognize.understand

Ecclesiastes 3:1 (AMP)

¹TO EVERYTHING there is a season, and a time for every matter or purpose under heaven.

John 7:6 (AMP)

⁶Whereupon Jesus said to them, My time (opportunity) has not come yet; but any time is suitable for you and your opportunity is ready any time [is always here].

As we grow and mature, we must understand the need to embrace the changing seasons of life.

A season does not qualify you or make you qualified. You qualify for your season.

Our seasons are basically divided into two types:

- 1) Seasons of Seed time. (Preparation)
- 2) Seasons of Harvest. (Reaping what has been sown during seed time.)

When we operate properly within a season, God sets up things and people to co-operate with us.

How you respond to a season determines your level of maturity and understanding of your season.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 – He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also planted eternity in men’s hearts and minds (a divinely implanted sense of a purpose working through the ages which nothing under the sun but God alone can satisfy).

Every season has a time of beauty. Its beauty is manifest in the maturity of the season.

Galatians 6:9 – And let us not lose heart and grow weary and faint in acting nobly and doing right, for in due time and the appointed season we shall reap, if we do not loosen and relax our courage and faint.

Every season has an appointed purpose in producing our destiny.

God's desire for each of us is fulfillment and fruitfulness.

We must never judge God by our present season.

His greatest priority for your life is that you become fruitful.

Message Takeaways:

1. A season does not qualify me for life – I qualify for my season.
2. I will embrace my seasons to become fulfilled and fruitful.
3. I will trust God with my seasons.

It is our hope that you use this outline as a resource throughout the week with your LifeGroup, family and in your personal devotion times.

REFERENCEVERSES:

Ecclesiastes 3:1; John 7:6; Ecclesiastes 3:10-11; Galatians 6:9

Every season has a time of beauty. Its beauty is manifest in the maturity of the season.

Galatians 6:9 – And let us not lose heart and grow weary and faint in acting nobly and doing right, for in due time and the appointed season we shall reap, if we do not loosen and relax our courage and faint.

Every season has an appointed purpose in producing our destiny.

God's desire for each of us is fulfillment and fruitfulness.

We must never judge God by our present season.

His greatest priority for your life is that you become fruitful.

Message Takeaways:

1. A season does not qualify me for life – I qualify for my season.
2. I will embrace my seasons to become fulfilled and fruitful.
3. I will trust God with my seasons.

It is our hope that you use this outline as a resource throughout the week with your LifeGroup, family and in your personal devotion times.

REFERENCEVERSES:

Ecclesiastes 3:1; John 7:6; Ecclesiastes 3:10-11; Galatians 6:9